

Aging Out: Case Closed

Part of the Aging Out DVD Series

After a nightmarish childhood, Keely Lopez entered foster care at 16 and aged out at 21. After a few months of working and living on her own, she became pregnant and went on welfare. She never wants to see her baby in the system.

Case Closed is part of two-time Academy Award-nominee and Emmy winner Roger Weisberg's powerful documentary series Aging Out, which follows five young people as they fend for themselves after being discharged from foster care. Winner of seven awards in 2004, including Best Documentary (Golden Reel Award) at the Tiburon Film Festival and Best Documentary at the Reel to Reel Festival in Charlotte, NC.
