

Foster Parent College: Fire Setting

Dr. Richard Delaney offers insights and steps to resolve this dangerous behavior problem.

One of the biggest fears in foster care is fire-setting, yet foster parents receive little training and information about it. This DVD gives parents a clear understanding of children who show distinctly different types of behavior: silent but deadly, impulsive, disturbed, and accidental. Find out what these behaviors mean and see some unique and effective ways parents can respond, plus information on when to seek professional help.

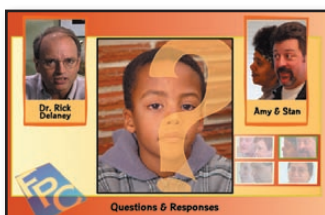

Use For:

- Foster, adoptive and kinship parents
- Group trainings

Scenes from Foster Parent College: Anger Outbursts

This program looks at four different children and their families to address four distinct fire-setting behaviors.

Dr. Delaney offers insights about each type of fire-setting, and presents steps on how to resolve each fire-setting behavior.

Foster Parent College offers parent training courses on difficult behaviors and conditions. Other classes include Culturally Competent Parenting, Grief & Loss In the Care System, Child Abuse & Neglect, Anger Pie, Anger Outbursts, Sleep Problems, and many more.
