

Foster Parent College: Kinship Care

One out of every four children placed in foster care now lives with relatives. Kinship care is usually unplanned and arises from a crisis situation requiring major adjustments in space, priorities and attitude.

In Kinship Care, Dr. Joseph Crumbley, internationally-known kinship care expert, addresses issues and challenges faced by relative caregivers and the children in their care. Through conversations with three families he offers many useful insights and practical steps for anyone caring for children of relatives, with special emphasis on family feuds, distant and defiant behaviors, and allegiance to birth parents.
