

FosterParentCollege.com®:

Positive Parenting 3: Time Out, Privilege Removal and Extra Chores

Getting kids to behave and to cooperate can be a real challenge; it's easy for both parents and children to slip into negative and frustrating interactions. In this third and final installment of the Positive Parenting series, parents learn how to cope with situations that have turned negative.

The course explores the use of Time Out, Privilege Removal and Extra Chores in handling discipline problems. Learn how to make reasonable, clear demands on children while listening to their input and being responsive to their needs, abilities and limitations.

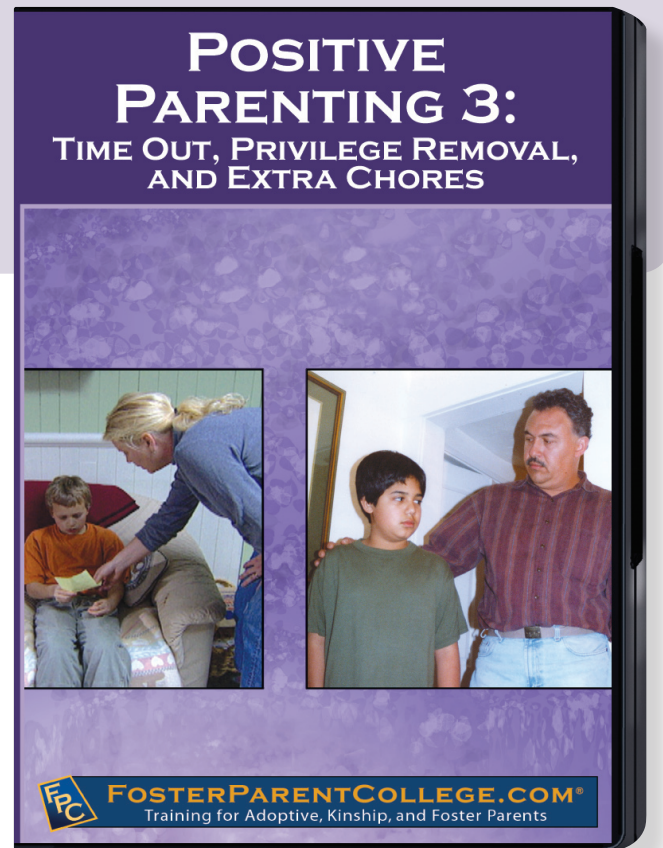

Use For:

- Foster, adoptive and kinship parents
- Group trainings
