

Foster Parent College: Running Away

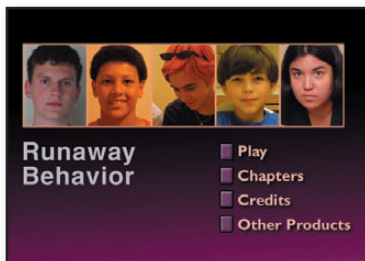

Each year 800,000 children between the ages of 10 and 18 run away from home and are reported missing – that's one out of seven kids.

In Running Away, Dr. Rick Delaney discusses different types of running away behavior with foster and adoptive families, what parents can do to prevent it, and how they can promote more positive behavior.

Use For:

- Foster, adoptive and kinship parents
- Group trainings

Scenes from Foster Parent College: Running Away

This program looks at five different types of runaway behavior: Searching for Roots, Running from Rules, Running from Love, Wanting to be Wanted, and Running to Crime.

Dr. Delaney interviews parents about the behavior problems they are facing and then offers insights and steps on how to solve them.

Foster Parent College offers parent training courses on difficult behaviors and conditions. Other classes include Culturally Competent Parenting, Grief & Loss In the Care System, Child Abuse & Neglect, Anger Pie, Anger Outbursts, Sleep Problems, and many more.
