

Safe Passage

Part of The

Parent To Parent

Mentoring Program

By Richard Delaney, Ph.D.

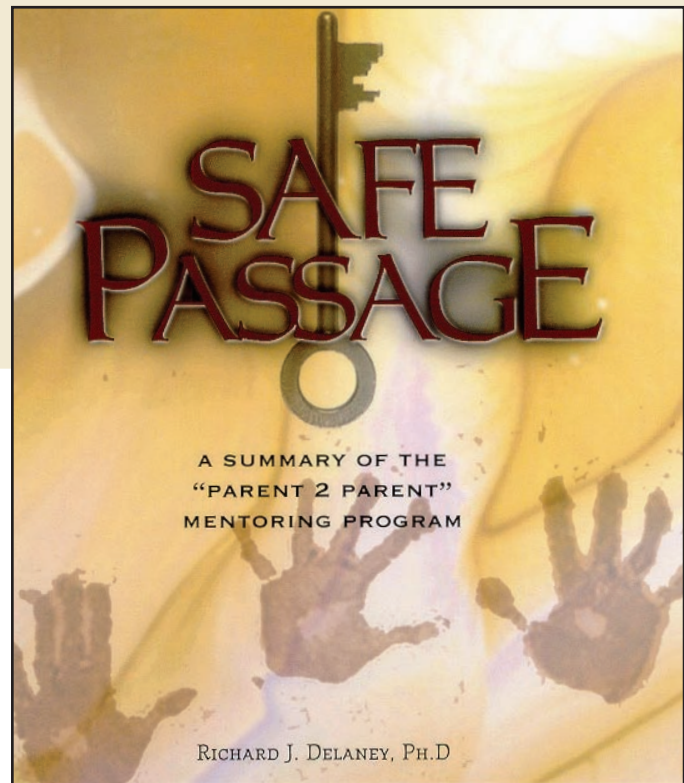

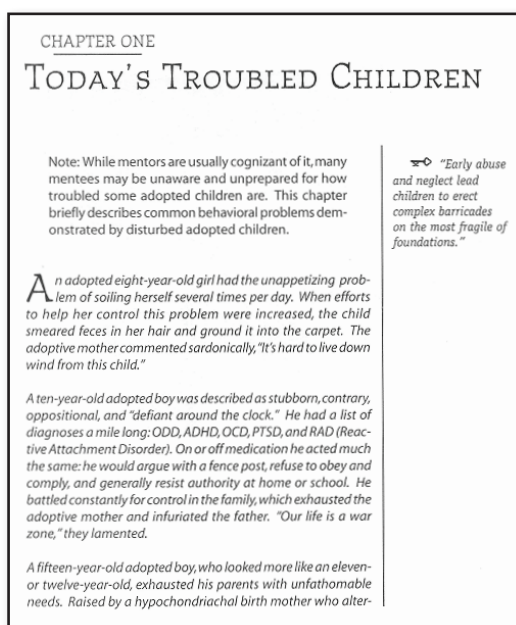

A companion guide to the "Parent To Parent" video, this book outlines a mentoring program piloted in the state of Montana. Together, the book and video are used to help educate those entering the mentoring program.

"Parent To Parent" is a post-adoptive, post-placement support service that pairs veteran foster/adoptive parents with novice foster/adoptive parents. The program provides support, advice and a sounding board for the new families. Its objective is to stabilize the placement, to overcome isolation, engender hope and provide a safe passage for the child and family.

Use For:

- Child welfare professionals
- Resource libraries
- Foster, adoptive and kinship parents
